

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

Carry the Atmosphere

You are qualified, male and female, to begin to bring forth an atmosphere. This will not be laid on just the fivefold in this last hour, says the Spirit of the Lord. But I am asking you to open up an avenue for Me to come. And it won't be just at church. Yes, it must be practiced. You will have to learn this new place. But learn it!

Believe about yourself what I am telling you, that you can carry this atmosphere with you. As I have told you to speak the end result, I am telling you, as you start your day and as you go from place to place, speak about the atmosphere that you are going to create when you get there. Create it in your homes, create it in your marriages.

Speak to Hopeless Situations

Hopeless situations that you think are absolutely beyond reason of resolve, hopeless situations are being resolved now, presently. Take hope. See and speak the end result, says the Lord. I am there in your midst, as I am here in their midst. Receive.

Watch these things begin to take place on the morrow, tomorrow, the next few days, the week that is to follow. Not only in witness, but in natural things taking place. Receive. Receive.

Expect Change

The hour is coming and now is, says the Spirit of Grace, that every service and everything that you have done before in the past will be rearranged and changed by My Spirit. Expect change. Ask for change. Seek for change. He that asks will find. The one who is knocking, the door will be opened unto them.

Know this, that it is My utmost desire to give you change in the Spirit, says the Lord. The old is done, it is passed away. Those things which are coming your way by My Spirit will be a continual awakening in My Spirit. Expect My change in every service, says the Spirit of Grace, and give Me worship for that change, says the Lord.
